A. BRUCE DENNISTON
B.S., University of Pittsburgh
M.A., University of Pittsburgh
Ph.D., University of Pittsburgh

Class of 1950:

Congratulations to you, the mid-century class. You are graduating from high school at a most challenging period in history. Your high school days have been influenced by the many civic, social, economic, and scientific problems growing out of reconstruction following World War II. You have witnessed such new ideas as television, nuclear fission, sonar, hydrogen-bomb, United Nations, cold war, Fair Deal, cradle-to-grave security, Communism, and many other concepts to which you have been introduced in your high school classes. How your generation deals with these problems will determine the course of history during the second half of the century. As your superintendent and counselor, I urge that you take a look back into the past half century to note the accomplishments as well as the failures of other generations, then face the future, determined to take your responsible places as individuals in meeting the problems of American Citizenship, and in striving to solve them.

A. Bruce Denniston
Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Denniston, here shown in conference with Gene Wilkins, senior class president, and Norma Mazzeo, treasurer, is always interested in the problems of our class.

. . . and Principal

To the Class at the end of the first half of the 20th century: Greetings.

Your class is the smallest class since 1931. However, it is said that quality is better than quantity.

World War II closed the summer before you entered the eighth grade. You have studied the trend of the times in your history classes. The United Nations has been established. It has helped to prevent several wars. Many problems remain to be solved before we can have "an enduring peace."

You will take your place as voters in a very few years. Your influence will be needed to possibly keep our country from socialism or some other "ism."

A number of you should seek higher education in order to provide good leadership. Many of our girls will soon establish homes. I hope they will be good Christian homes. Others will be scattered in all directions. May you ever look back on your high school days as the happiest days of your lives.

Auf Wiedersehen,

Arthur R. Stewart

High School Principal

ARTHUR R. STEWART
B.S., Grove City College
M.A., Columbia University

We bother Mr. Stewart about a lot of things—excuses, grades, transcripts, special permissions to put on a dance or place a poster on the bulletin board. Beverlee Beckstine and Mimi Beachler are consulting him about their credits for graduation.

And We Use Our Opportunities . . .

Here are some seniors hard at work in the library on special assignments. For helping us find books and magazines for reports, current events, and general reading, we are most grateful to the librarians. Miss Sayers, one of the librarians, has given us a course in library science as a part of our work in English. The course has helped us all to become better acquainted with the library.

DEAN CROWTHER
A.B., Grove City College

Mr. Crowther, our guidance counselor, has done much in helping us plan our future. By various tests he has helped us to know better our abilities and interests. His office is filled with many college catalogs and pamphlets dealing with different vocations. "College requirements" is the subject being discussed here by Mr. Crowther and Pat McMillen.

Class History

In the fall of 1946, one hundred eighty-one of us put our childish toys away, for we were to become full-fledged high school students. Up to then the main course of study had been readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic, but we were grown up now with Latin, algebra, and Shakespeare to take into our stride. One of the highlights of the year was a bus trip to Meadville where we saw the play Julius Caesar enacted on the stage. Another enjoyable event was the freshman class party in the gym. We had a floor show, played games, and danced; but the thing that provided the most amusement was the relay race in which the boys donned the corsets. The remainder of the year passed quickly.

Just one hundred sixty-eight of us returned the next year as sophomores. We laughed to ourselves when we saw the bewildered and confused expressions on the faces of the freshmen as they tried to find the way to their classes in the mad rush through the halls. Of course we could never have looked that way. Catherine Foglia and Marian Oakes joined the cheerleading squad at the beginning of football season. Activities and clubs began to fill many of our hours, but we still found time to learn phylas and theorems.

By the time we were juniors, our number was reduced to one hundred fifty-six, and there were so many things for us to do that it was necessary for us to organize. The result of our election was: Harley Cloud, president; Cap Means, vice president; Beverlee Beckstine, secretary; Diane Booth, treasurer. Miss Schumann was our adviser.

Our first activity as an organized class was a Hallowe'en party. The gym was decorated with pumpkins and cornstalks for the event. Dancing and a "truth or consequence" program constituted the entertainment. We shall always remember Gene Wilkins and Don Long paying their consequence by doing "Bo Bo." It wasn't long till we ordered class rings, but it was a long time before we got them, or so we thought, for we were quite anxious. There was a near-riot when they did arrive one day in March. Being in need of money to finance a prom, we had a Christmas card sale which started our treasury off with a nice sum. Of course, our class play helped the financial status too.

Homecoming Queen Mildred Zahniser and her attendants, Marian Oakes and Mary Jane Fry.

In October a cast of twenty-four was chosen to put on "The Nit Wits." It was a farce concerned with a psychology student who decided, while his parents were away on a trip, to use some of his knowledge to earn money for his next year's college expenses. His parents read his ad in the paper and decided to play a joke on him by hiring actors to pose as patients. The outcome was hilarious, and the play a huge success.

The prom was the finishing touch of the year. We spent many hours in the home ec room frantically cutting, pasting, and painting so we could have the decorations ready. The day of the prom found us rushing around the Recreation Center trying to get everything in its proper place. When that long awaited night came, the girls in their attractive formals and the fellows in their best suits found themselves on the top of a New York penthouse, overlooking the Manhattan skyline. Johnny Martin's orchestra provided the music for the dancers.

The next fall found our number drastically reduced as only one hundred twenty-five returned to be dignified seniors. Another election was held making Gene Wilkins, president; Delbert Leonard, vice president; Marian Oakes, secretary; and Norma Mazzeo, treasurer. Mrs. Denniston was our new adviser.

Since our treasury was low in funds, and we wanted to have a yearbook to record forever the career of our class, we launched a magazine sale and made out rather well. Harley Cloud, the high salesman for the boys, and Margie Menihart, the high for the girls, received engraved pen and pencil sets. Tom Radish carried home a radio. It was the prize offered to any person selling five or more subscriptions and lucky enough to have his slip drawn from the box.

Tryouts were soon held for the senior class play, and a cast of twelve was chosen for "Damsels in Distress." It was about two girls of college age who lived in Mrs. Guppy's rooming house. Pam, whose Aunt Eustacia had sent her there to study music, had used the money for art lessons. Gerry's Uncle Braymer had given her money for a business course, but she was taking dramatic lessons instead. When the aunt and uncle, former sweethearts who had quarreled, decided to visit the girls, many humorous predicaments were encountered. The play had two large audiences who responded appreciatively.

Snaps from the senior class play, "Damsels in Distress."

Mid-term found us being measured for caps and gowns, ordering announcements and name cards, and exchanging pictures. Many began pondering over college catalogs and application blanks. Mr. Crowther gave us numerous tests to aid us in choosing our vocations.

Before we knew it, it was commencement season with everyone getting ready for the prom and finishing up the year's work. Finally, after the last books were turned in, we donned caps and gowns for our vesper service. We enjoyed our last social time together at our farewell party. Then came the night for which we had waited twelve years—commencement. Graduation brought a thrill to our hearts but also a note of sadness as we realized it would be our last time together.

(Nightmare)

One day a YOUNG SAYLOR was ROMINE through a GREEN-FIELD. The sKISER sunny. EMMETT a BLACK SMITH and a MILLER under the SCHADT of the OAKES which grew along the RHODES. He had a COTTON bag of PEEBLES which he had picked up along the PFAFF. He was going to try ANSELL them for DE NICOLA piece. But ALLEN all, everyone would say, "I DUNNA-VANT any." Before LONG, they were CHASON him. He GRABBed up some STONEs and threw them at the chasers saying, "This is a FREE-LAND!" Just then he saw a KEENE man ROHR by in his new FORD making the GUERRINI FOGLIAge RUSSELL and leaving behind a big CLOUD of dust. He LEEned up against a tree and said, "That made MENIHART stand still. I wonder what he MEANS by going so fast? You GILMORE people that way!"

He became hungry, so he decided to FRY a HEN-RY steak. He ate some frESH-BAUGHt RADISHes that he had with him too. He ate no more because the MOYER eat the MOYER CRAVER. He walked on and met the man who was in such a hurry. He said, "Won't she stART-MAN?" He said, "No, it CONN not because this is quite a HILL-MAN!" Just then they heard a CAMP-BELL ring. The SAYLOR said "LESLIEve the car here and see what's up over there." There he met a girl a little MEEKER than himself. He sat down beSNYDER and said, "Will you dance a MAZURKE-WIZ me?" She said, "These GAISER fresh, but, FRANKENY, I'd rather go fishing. Do you have the BATES?" They caught a METZ of fish and COOKed it.

Then all at once he was aware of the fact that he had his paJAMISON, and it was all a dream!

On August 18, the football candidates began to report for regular practice, and when September 9 rolled around, the Trojans looked to be in top shape for the opening game. Erie East, a new team to our schedule, came to Stewart Field confident of victory. An Erie halfback pulled one of the most spectacular runs that has ever been seen on Stewart Field when he intercepted a pass and ran 102 yards for a touchdown. But even with this amazing run, the Trojans came out on top by the score of 25-18.

When the Hickory Hornets came to town, it was more than just a football game to the Trojans and coaches, who were still burning from the 14-0 defeat of last year which cost our team the County Class A and District 10 Championships. The boys really set the Hornets back, 12-0.

The next game, at Oil City, found the Trojans getting off to a quick start, scoring on the third play of the game but missing the conversion. Then in the second period the Oilers scored and made the extra point. The aroused Oiler team seemed to be too much for the boys to overcome, and as a result the Trojans lost a tough one, 7-6.

For the third triumph of the season the team traveled to Titusville where they met a revengeful team of Rockets who tried to even things up after being defeated last year by the score of 60-0. In the first few minutes the Trojans intercepted a pass and scored after a march of nineteen yards. The Rockets came back fighting, but the Trojans refused to let them score, and when this hard-fought game was over Penn High was on top by a 7-0 score.

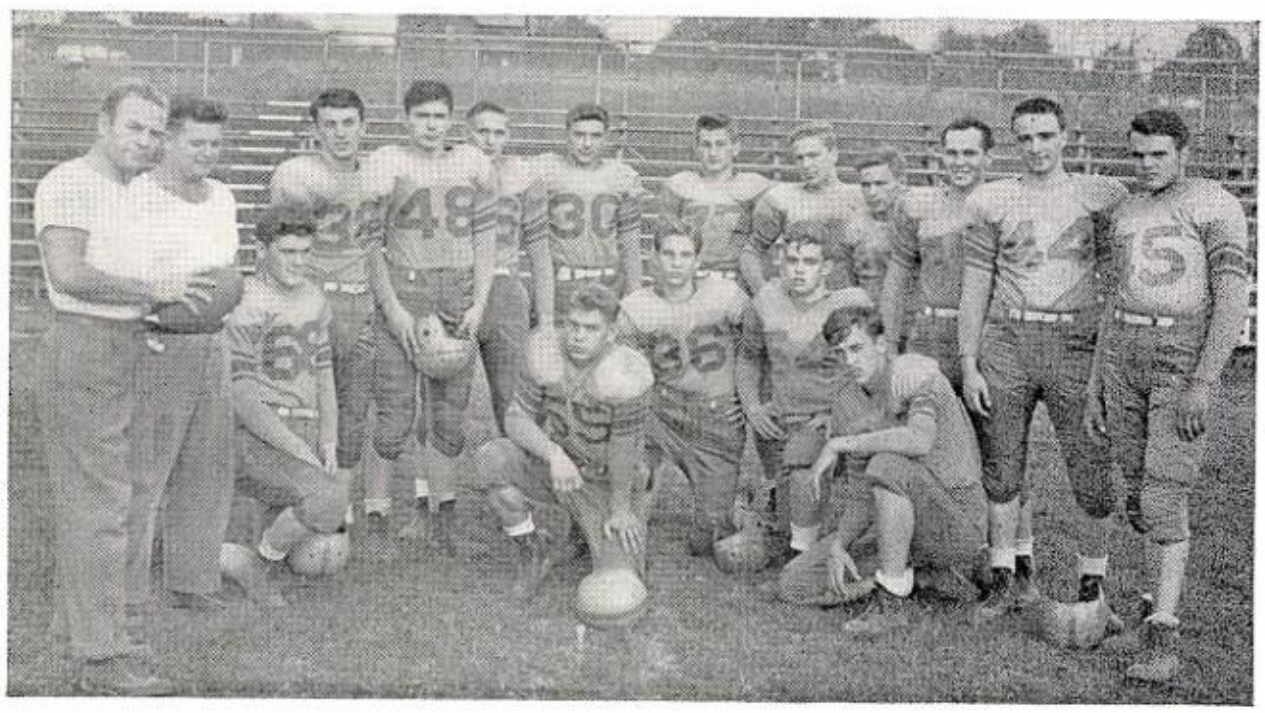
With three wins and one loss under their belts the Trojans traveled to Franklin where they racked up the highest score of the season. After a few quick touchdowns in the first quarter, Coach Snyder substituted freely, and everybody played. The second half started, and hardly anyone on the first team re-entered the game. When the massacre was over the Trojans had won, 35-0.

The team next traveled to Midland where a tough Midland team lay waiting, gunning for the Trojans after a 6-0 upset last year. The Midland team was sparked by a tough fullback who racked up the yardage against the Trojans, and the Trojans were overcome with their second loss of theseason. The score was Midland 12, Penn High 0.

For our homecoming game we played Grove City, our traditional rival. The Trojans unwrapped their fancy punt returns, and that is something not seen on too many football fields. This play worked twice: first Myron Bright got the ball and ran seventy-four yards for a touchdown. The second time, Mike Peterson got the ball, and, behind tremendous blocking, he ran eighty yards for another score. Those two touchdown runs showed the power of the Penn High eleven, and Grove City couldn't come back to score. The final result was Penn High 13, Grove City 0.

Our next victim was Hubbard. It was a cold night, but the Trojans were confident. Even with many fumbles caused by the cold, the Trojans scored. Late in the second quarter Hubbard intercepted a pass and ran it back for a touchdown, their only score. On a punt return, Mike Peterson scored again after another of his beautiful runs. The Trojans won again by the score of 32-6.

The final game of the season brought Sharpsville to our field. Even though the Trojans had lost two games, they had not lost to Class A teams, thus the game determined whether Penn High would be Class A Champs. A well-remembered event of this game happened when the Blue Devils were on our twenty-yard line. Ellison, a Sharpsville back, threw a pass to Moyer who jumped high in the air to catch it, but before he came back to the ground, George Weldon, the Trojan fullback, hit him, and it looked as though Moyer did a nose dive straight down on his head. He didn't move, and everyone thought he had broken his neck, but actually when he came down he lit on his chest, with his feet straight up in the air, and flopped over on his back with only the wind knocked out of him. The Trojans scored twice and won, 12-0. Thus the closing of the season showed the Trojans winning the Class A Championship. Out of the starting eleven, nine players will not be back next year.



The boys who have played their last game for dear old Penn High.

First Row: Kenny Conn; Bill McCurdy; Howard DuMars; Bill Wertz; Tom Detelich.

Second Row: Don Foulk, manager; Gene Wilkins; Bill Floros; Joe Allen; Ron Julian; Chuck Stoyer; Art Keisel, manager; Glenn Caulfield, coach.

From last year's team only four lettermen were left for the 1950 basketball season. Bill McCurdy, Howard DuMars, Gene Wilkins, and Bill Wertz returned again to play under a new coach, Glenn Caulfield.

The Trojans got off to a bad start by losing the first four games. In the game with the Meadville Bulldogs, the scoring was very close with the half ending 14-13. The second half proved fatal to the Trojans, and the final score was Penn High 24, Meadville 36. The second game was with a newcomer, Rocky Grove. The first quarter Rocky Grove scored fourteen points to Penn High's two. As the game progressed, the Trojans tried to narrow the gap, but the Grovers were too much to overcome, and they won, 47-32. The Trojans' poor foul shooting and failure to hit the nets from the sidelines spelled defeat at the hands of the Franklin Nurserymen, 17-45. Poor foul shooting again spelled defeat in the Titusville game. The closest Penn High came to catching up was in the fourth quarter when they were within two points of Titusville, but the Rockets exploded for six straight points, and the final score was Penn High 36, Titusville 43.

The next tilt was with our traditional county rival, Grove City. The Trojans finally started to click and won their first game of the season, 60-41. They led all the way and were never threatened by the Eagles. The next game again brought a clash with Rocky Grove. From the beginning, the Trojans fell behind and never caught up. This, their fifth loss out of six starts, was by a 58-35 score. Then came Mercer, and the game was rough the whole way through. It was a see-saw affair. At the end of three quarters the score was 40-40, but the fourth quarter showed the Mustangs outscoring the Trojans to win the game, 59-50.

Another new team to our schedule was New Wilmington. This game showed Penn High getting more rebounds, and they were a little more accurate in their shooting, but New Wilmington was too strong, and they handed the Trojans their sixth loss, 66-43.

One of the closest scoring games of the season was the repeat with Titusville. In the last few minutes the score was Titusville 47, Penn High 44. Floros sank a side shot to even it up a little more, but failure to sink another basket caused Penn High to lose another tough one, 47-46. Then Sharpsville again proved disastrous to the Trojans. At half-time the score was tied, 21-21, and at the end of the third quarter it was 29-27 in favor of Sharpsville. In the fourth quarter, Sharpsville scored sixteen points to Penn High's seven to go ahead and win, 45-34.

In the Hickory game, the Hornets got away to a fast start, and from then on, the Trojans could not keep up. They were finally overcome by a 69-41 score. In the second game with Mercer, Bill Wertz hit a hot streak and scored twenty-six points. This game showed poor passing and poor shooting on the part of both teams, but Mercer won again, 51-44. The floor maneuvers on the part of the Trojans were not clicking in the next game. The Franklin Nurserymen took advantage of this and won easily, 57-36.

For the second win of the season, the Trojans played the Alumni. They wanted to beat the former Trojan players and really set them back, 52-28. The Trojans' third win of the sesaon came at Lawrence Park where they whipped a highly favored Lawrence Park quintet. The Erie team started off fast and led until the third quarter when the Trojans unfolded their shooting accuracy. Scoring thirty points in the last half, the Trojans topped Lawrence Park, 54-43. As the Sharpsville Blue Devils came to town and unrolled their attack, the Trojans, instead of going ahead in the last half, found themselves falling farther behind. They beat the Trojans, 53-37.

Once again the Trojans met Grove City with the same results as before. The Trojans won over the Eagles in the last quarter when Bill McCurdy sank the game-winning goal in the last ninety seconds. Score—53-51. The fifth win of the season came in an overtime period. The Meadville Bulldogs were ahead by one point when the whistle officially ended the game, but the referee had called a technical foul on a Meadville player, and Detelich sank it to throw the game into an overtime period. Ken Conn then put the game away for the Trojans as he scored two fouls and one goal, 58-55.

As the Hornets won their seventeenth in a row, the Trojans suffered their fourteenth loss, 76-36, and in the final game of the season with New Wilmington, the Trojans suffered their fifteenth loss in twenty games. This was another see-saw affair with the lead constantly changing hands. At the end of the third quarter, the Trojans led 45-41, but New Wilmington piled up thirty points in the fourth quarter to win, 71-61.

Penn High won two and lost four games in County Class A competition to put them in third place in a four team circuit. The team fought like Trojans, and many of the games were lost by close scores.

Wrestling has really become a popular sport in Penn High School in the past few years. During the last three seasons, Penn High has lost only two out of twenty-six matches, which shows the spirit the wrestlers put into the sport.

The first match of the season brought Erie Strong Vincent to our gym. The Trojans won six events and drew in one event to come out on top, 24-18. Lenkner and Conn both pinned their opponents. The second match showed the Trojans winning most of their points in the lighter divisions against Erie Academy. Lenkner and Sherbondy pinned their men, and Owens drew as the Trojans came through with their second win, 25-19.

A newcomer to the wrestling schedule was East Liverpool, who proved to be a "not so tough" opponent. The first two matches were won by Guerrini and Sherbondy, both by pins, as the Trojans went on to win seven decisions and the match by a 31-14 score. Titusville was next in line for the onslaught of the Trojan grapplers. Pins were recorded by Lenkner, Conn, Sherbondy, and Lineman. The Trojans won seven straight events between the 95-138-lb. classes to win the match by the score of 37-10.

Penn High really went to town as they won ten out of a possible eleven events to swamp Oil City by the largest score of the season, 41-5. The match with our arch rival, Grove City, showed two undefeated teams meeting. Grove City had won three and lost none, and Penn High had won five and lost none. The Trojans won five falls and three decisions to defeat Grove City with an impressive 36-13 score. By now everyone knew Greenville had a powerhouse.

The Trojans again met Oil City with the same results as before. They won six falls and four decisions out of eleven matches, and the final score was Penn High 40, Oil City 6. The Titusville-Greenville match was the first of the season in which the Trojans failed to win a single event by a fall. They made up for this by winning seven decisions. Dick Guerrini won his eighth consecutive match of the season, and Penn High won again over Titusville, 21-16.

The Trojans next traveled to Grove City where they racked up their second win of the season over the Eagles. Sherbondy, Galekovic, Owens, and Weldon won by pins while Grove City copped quite a few decisions. As a result, the score was fairly close with Penn High winning in the end, 26-20. The last match of the season showed Penn High entertaining East Liverpool. They won their final victory of the season with four pins and four decisions, 33-11. This is the first year in school history that the Trojan matmen have been undefeated.

At the close of the regular wrestling season the team traveled to Titusville, to compete in the District matches. The team did exceptionally well as they captured the District Ten crown by winning five matches. Dick Guerrini, 90-pounder, and Nort Lenkner, 133, both won by falls. The other three victors, Dale Conn, Dick Sherbondy, and Jim Owens, won by decisions.

The winners from District Ten were entitled to travel to Washington, Pa., where the State eliminations were held March tenth and eleventh. All five winners from District won their first State matches, but only Owens and Lenkner survived all their eliminations and traveled to the finals. Owens was pinned in the third period by the former State Champ, and Lenkner lost by a close 3-1 decision. The season closed with a very successful record chalked up in the school history, and we all have hopes of a good season next year.

Galekovic and Lenkner practicing holds under the watchful eye of Coach Berry.

Following the winter sports of basketball and wrestling, came baseball. Coach Stewart issued the call for candidates for the team, and every night after school the boys went down to Packard Park to practice. Every noon you could see the pitchers and catchers warming up either in the gym or outside, depending on the weather. After two weeks of hard training, the team was fairly well prepared, but they lacked power behind the plate. They played well and fought hard but came out on the short end of wins.

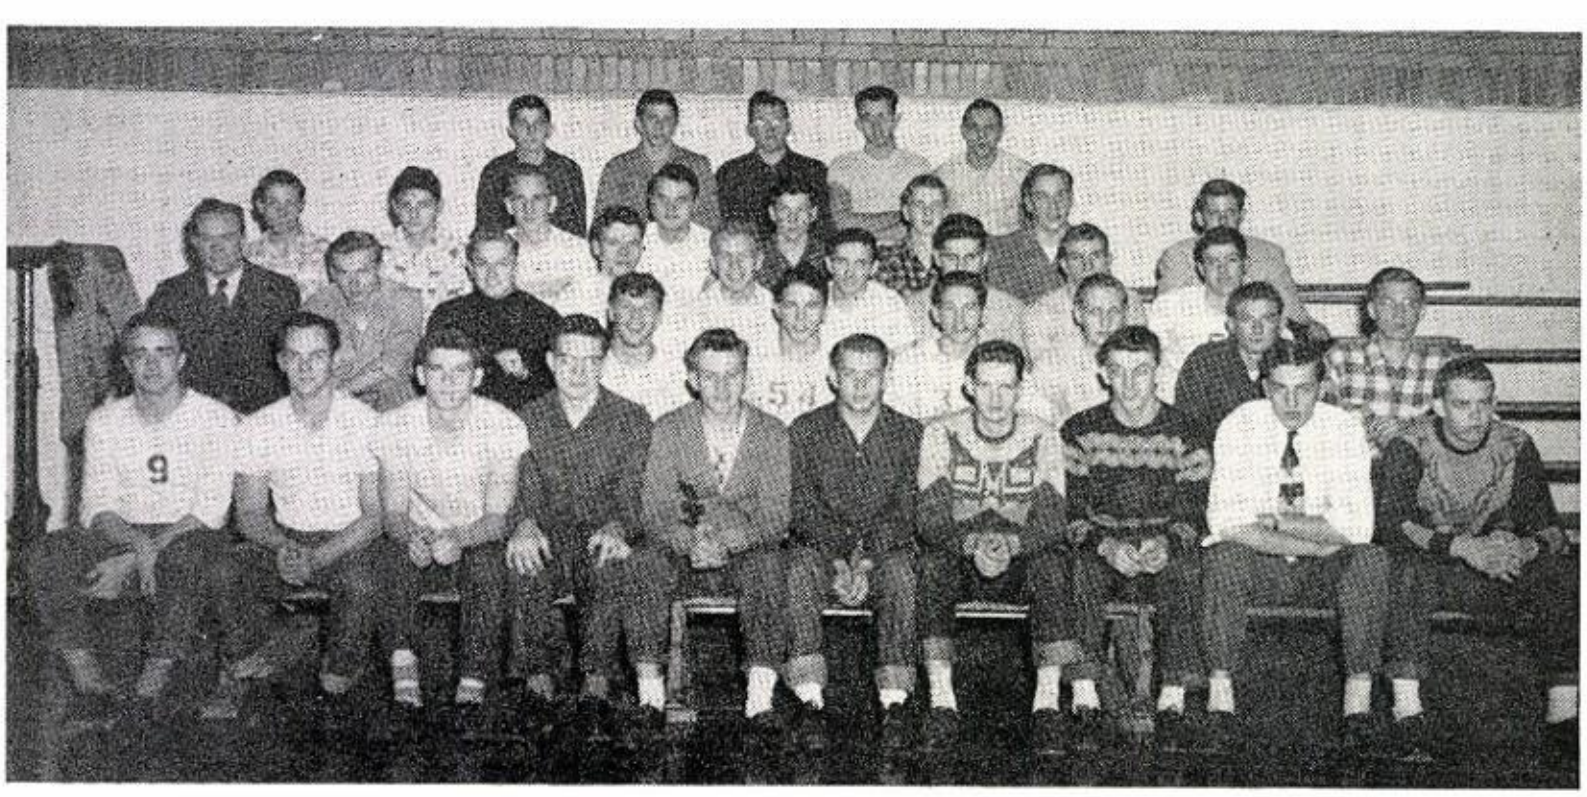
For the 1950 season, Coach Stewart will have to start with new recruits and will have to build a whole new team because of the loss of most of the players to graduation.

G. A. A. OFFICERS

President, Catherine Foglia; Vice President, Mildred Bates; Secretary-Treasurer, Phyllis Romine; Points Manager, Mimi Beachler; Advisers, Miss Mackell, Miss Race

G. A. A.

The G. A. A. develops an interest in the knowledge of physical culture and sports. It also gives the girls an opportunity for more advanced work in sports. They held a party for the members and their dates and sponsored a dance for the King and Queen of Sports. Exciting volleyball and basketball games in competition with the teachers, Varsity "G", and G. A. A. alumnae also interested the girls.



VARSITY "G" OFFICERS

President, Nort Lenkner; Vice President, Gene Wilkins; Secretary-Treasurer, Howard DuMars; Adviser, Mr. Snyder

VARSITY "G"

The Varsity "G" promotes an interest in athletics throughout the school. The membership consists of boys who have earned a letter in football, basketball, wrestling or baseball. The members sold programs at the football games and also sold pencils with the football schedule on them. In the spring they held a banquet to honor the coaches and players of the various teams.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council acts as a school government and establishes better school citizenship. The members are chosen by their home rooms. This year they were in charge of the special assemblies and scheduling the dances. They put a lighted motto sign in the second floor hall on which the motto was changed from week to week. They also held an auction sale, sponsored a dance, and sold refreshments at basketball games to raise money for senior athletic sweaters.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society creates an enthusiasm for scholarship and service. Membership is based on scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Members, who are chosen by Mr. Stewart and a faculty council, must have an average of B. Since the club is purely honorary there are few activities. In the spring there is a formal initiation and a banquet.

BUSINESS CLUB

To create, maintain, and establish a better knowledge of the present day business world is the purpose of the Business Club. The members also gain experience in modern office techniques so that they may be better equipped for employment upon graduation. This club was founded this year and has a membership of twelve. The club put on a play named "Hindsight" in assembly to arouse more interest in business subjects. The members enjoyed a visit to court in Mercer. One of their social events was a bowling party followed by a chili supper.

LANGUAGE CLUB OFFICERS

President, Sally Whaley
Vice President, Pat McMillen

Strike Up The Music . . .

BAND OFFICERS
President, Harold Means; Vice President, Bert Heisser; Secretary-Treasurer, Richard Montgomery; Director, Mr. Colonna

BAND

The band is kept busy not only during the school term but in the summer too. They played in parades and at county fairs. This group also played for football and basketball games. The band provides an opportunity for all students interested in instrumental music to show their talents. Rehearsals were held Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings at eight-fifteen. In the spring they presented their annual band concert.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra played the music for the senior class play, Thespian play, Senior Vesper Service, and Commencement. They also did the supporting role in the Christmas program when the choir presented "Song of Christmas." They met on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Representatives were sent to District Orchestra in Butler and also to All-State Orchestra in Hanover.

As we graduate from this, our life in Penn High School, to take our places in the world, we look back at the happy times we have spent together and with pride in our hearts remember the Alma Mater:

Hail to the Gold! Hail to the Blue!
Hail Alma Mater, ever so true!
We love no other, so let our motto be:
Loyalty, Penn High School! Victory!
